DIVISION OF EDUCATION HOLDS WEEKLY TUTORIALS

In an effort to assist students in formulating effective study habits, the Division of Education held a series of tutorials. These tutorials were held in the Curriculum Laboratory of the H. H. ## COLLEGE WORK STUDY: A VALUABLE RESOURCE

Morris College feels that no needy student should be denied the opportunity of receiving a college education because of a lack of financial resources. In supporting this idea the college offers financial assistance to eligible students through various sources.

The College Work-Study Program is one of several assistances available through Federal programs. Many eligible students take advantage of this opportunity to finance their education by working their way through school. College Work-Study offers the student unique experiences in the professional employment world.

In addition to the College Work-Study Program, students may receive the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant (BEOG), Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG), and South Carolina Tuition Grants as well as college scholarships.

DR. LUNS C. RICHARDSON
OUR BELOVED PRESIDENT

A TRIBUTE TO THE MAN THAT LED MORRIS COLLEGE INTO THE MAINSTREAM . . .

Luns Columbus Richardson, a man of unquestionable ability and sincere dedication, has lived a life of unfaltering service to God and to his fellowman. His life has been a symbolic tribute to the adage that accomplishment and success are products of hard work and conscientious effort.

He has prepared himself through education. After graduating as Valedictorian of Butler High School in his hometown of Hartsville, South Carolina, he received the A. B. Degree Magna Cum Laude from Benedict College and the M. A. Degree in Higher Educational Administration from Columbia University. He did further study at South Carolina State College, Rutgers University, and the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. Dr. Richardson has been awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Pedagogy by Benedict College and the Doctor of Humane Letters by Morris College.

Service has always been the watchword throughout his life. He served as Dean of Men and Chaplain at the Denmark Technical Education Center from 1949-1964. From 1964-1966 he served as principal of St. Helena High School, Frogmore, South Carolina; and from 1966-1967 as principal of Wilson Senior High School, Florence, South Carolina. He served in various administrative capacities at Benedict College from 1967-1973 — the last sixteen months as Acting President. On July 1, 1973 he became Vice President of Voorhees College and served until July 1, 1974, when he became the ninth President of Morris College, Sumter, South Carolina.

Under his guidance, Morris College received full accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools at its December 1978 meeting.

He has prepared himself spiritually. Dr. Richardson entered the ministry at the early age of eighteen years, under the leadership and guidance of a Christian home. He came very early under the influence of Dr. H. H. Butler, prominent educator and Baptist leader. He also came under the spiritual influence of Dr. Maxie S. Gordon during his undergraduate College days.

He has served as pastor of Thankful Baptist Church, Bamberg, South Carolina, since 1959. In March, 1974, Thankful honored him by naming its educational building for him and placing his portrait there.

Among his many honors and recognition are listings in "Outstanding Educators of America," "Personalities of the South," and "Outstanding Young Black Americans." In 1974, Dr. Richardson was selected for inclusion in the Dictionary of International Biography; in 1978, he was listed in "Who's Who Among Black Americans" and "Who's Who in the South and Southwest." His present activities are a further testimony to service.

He serves the nation as a member of the National Advisory Committee on Veterans Affairs. In 1978, he was invited to participate in a week long seminar at the Air War College-Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. He was invited by the Pentagon, along with seventy-five selected persons throughout the nation, for a week-long briefing on American Military and foreign policy.

He serves the state of South Carolina as a member of the Board of Directors of the South Carolina State Chamber of Commerce.

He serves the local community as member of the Sumter Development Board and as a member of the Board of Directors of the United Way, the Wateree Community Actions Agency, Inc., and the Sumter Chamber of Commerce.

He has served the education community for 3 years as the Chairman of the Committee on Research Studies and Special Projects of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and now as Vice-Chairman of the South Carolina Tuition Grants Committee.

He serves the Baptist constituencies by participating in the activities of the various organized national, state, and local bodies. In 1977, he was appointed to the Centennial Planning Committee of 100 of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. In 1978, he served as a panelist, along with four other College Presidents, at a special session on education at the Convention's Annual Meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Service and achievement, undergirded by a strong preparation and steadfast commitment, have made Luns Columbus Richardson a mighty warrior in God's army. His name will go down in History as one being in the forefront of the cause for service to humanity. The multitudes of students with whom he has worked in his several capacities all hold him in the very highest esteem as teacher, counselor, friend, administrator, leader, and model of Christian service.

A hand-drawn graphic featuring the words "Special Events" in a stylized, outlined font. The text is contained within a large, hand-drawn circle. The word "Special" is positioned above "Events". The letters are white with black outlines. Some letters, including the 'S' in "Special", the 'E' in "Events", and the 't' in "Events", are filled with dense black cross-hatching. The circle is also decorated with several small, dark, brush-like strokes around its perimeter. The entire graphic is set against a plain white background within a rectangular frame.

Speaking of the College's recently gained Accreditation, Governor Riley stated "You have faced adversity and triumphed." He had strong words of praise for Dr. Richardson, faculty, staff, and especially students. The Mid-Winter Rally is the second major fund-raising affair for the college.

The mood of the recent Accreditation was reflected in a banner stretched out behind the platform which read "ACCREDITATION: OUR ATTAINMENT AND OUR CHALLENGE TO GREATER EXCELLENCE."

BLACK experiences of
EXECUTIVE(S) from industry and government are
EXCHANGE(D) with textbook theory in the NATIONAL URBAN LEAGUE
PROGRAM of business occupational realities at MORRIS COLLEGE

BEEP is a pioneer in the field of education and the work of industry and government. It provides a meeting ground for Black executives, Black colleges and their students within the credit-bearing educational environment.

With the establishment of this informational network, other significant benefits are derived from these creative, corporate-Black student partnerships: 1) realistic occupational preparation and 2) role model inspiration. Thus, BEEP's main objectives are to (a) augment the curricula at Black colleges and universities with more industry/government related courses; (b) supplement faculty resources with executives from business, industry and governmental agencies; (c) provide students with identifiable role models; (d) enlighten students and faculty about job opportunities as well as current and future business patterns and procedures; and (e) establish and develop new avenues for financial assistance, educational programs, and manpower resources for participation of colleges.

Many of these program members, along with Tuskegee, Alabama's Mayor Johnny Ford, highlighted Morris College's first Annual Business Conference.
